

The dominance of conglomerates like News Corp and Clear Channel is an abomination. Yet in this age of doublespeak, the FCC champions rules that favor these monopolists while trumpeting "competition" and the "free market". Have you no shame?